

DECLARATION FOR PRODUCTS SUBJECT TO RADIATION CONTROL STANDARDS

This document is required whenever a shipment consists of electronic products including all products or equipment capable of emitting ionizing or non-ionizing radiation, sonic, infrasonic, or ultrasonic waves. Television receivers, microwave ovens, x-ray equipment, lasers, ultraviolet lights, diathermy units, infrared heaters, ultrasonic cleaners, and particle accelerators are examples of products required to comply with the Radiation Control for Health and Safety Act. This form must be presented to U.S. Customs along with an FDA Product Code.

NOTE: If this document is typed, the signature must be in BLUE ink. If this document is handwritten, it must be prepared in BLUE ink.

U.S. Customs Port of Entry - Broker will complete at the time of entry.

Entry Number - Broker will complete at the time of entry.

Date of Entry - Broker will complete at the time of entry.

Name and Address of Manufacturing Site; Country of Origin - Name and address of the manufacturer of the article. This block must be completed and must be accurate. Also, indicate the Country of Origin (Country of Manufacture).

Name and Address of Importer and Ultimate Consignee - This is the name and address of the party responsible for the payment of duties (if any) and the brokerage charges (holder of the surety bond). If different from the Importer of Record, also show the name and address of the U.S. consignee.

Product Description - Generic description of the equipment, such as "computer monitor."

Quantity (Items/Containers) - The total number of pieces being shipped that are subject to FDA requirements and the number of containers they are in, i.e., four computer monitors in two boxes would be "4 pcs. in 2 boxes."

Model Number(s) and Brand Name(s) - complete as applicable.

Declaration: "I/We Hereby Declare" - Mark the applicable box. It is important to have knowledge of the facts prior to marking off any of the choices.

Signature of Importer of Record - The signature of the responsible party for duty (if any) and brokerage. The signer's name must also be printed below their signature (only an original signature will be accepted).

Name and Title of Responsible Person - The printed name and title of the signing party.